The Principal Observes
All Schools Teach Doctrine

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▾RSS

Schools are supposed to teach. Everyone knows this and would expect nothing less. However, most people have not thought much about what this means and they assume this applies only to academic subjects. The fact is that no education is neutral. It always comes with philosophical assumptions which shape the minds of children more than the facts that are taught.

The problem is that education that does not begin with the Bible places other idols in the place of God. In our society, science and technology are the usual idols that offer “truths” that replace the Bible. Science has its place and needs to be taught, but it does not offer answers to life. This is not the only idol, yet it is a prevalent one. Another common idol is the belief in absolute human freedom and autonomy. Because it is not true, textbooks and teachers that subscribe to this belief will not prepare students for the world they will encounter as they grow and become adults. These are only examples of the counterfeit worldviews competing with divinely revealed truth.

We teach the worldview of the Bible. At Grace Academy, we work hard to make sure that our instruction begins and ends with a biblical perspective. It prepares our students for the real world so that they will have the greatest success. A secular worldview offers a shriveled approach to life because it eliminates the spiritual, the most important and the only part of man that will survive death. What students need is an accurate, truthful education that is free of fads and unbiblical ideas. This is exactly what we offer at Grace.

Volunteer of the Month

It is our privilege to enjoy the benefit of countless volunteer service hours from those who desire to positively impact our students. Each month a different teacher chooses our Volunteer of the Month. This month our volunteer has been chosen by James Timmermans.

This month we wish to honor Gary Lee. Mr. Lee spent countless hours earlier this year helping the First Lego League Robotics Team. His knowledge and expertise in the area of engineering was valuable to the project that the FLL Team chose to focus on. He also spent time working with our lead programmers in assisting them to be able to complete the robot's required tasks.
