The Principal Observes

Foundations

Every successful organization must have a purpose for existing or it will eventually face a crisis that will cause it to go extinct. Organizations are often founded on enthusiasm for an idea, or project, yet without a strong foundation that will stand the test of time. For the benefit of our families, in the next few editions of the Eagle Flyer, I am going to review the documents and the philosophy that make up the foundation of Grace Academy. The foundation is formed from the Bible, our Statement of Faith (along with the complete
